

Our know-how, available to all...

With over 20 years in the pharma industry, we have a vast amount of experience and expertise, especially when it comes to managing pharmaceutical compliance.

This week we introduce you to our most recent Marketing Authorisation Holders Responsibilities Guide (MAH), containing the knowledge, advice and instruction required for MA Holders to be successful.

This is just one document contained within our `information series`, a package of documentation and guides to help our clients navigate pharmaceutical compliance.

Marketing Authorisation Holder's (MAH) Guide 2022

Description

` An outline of the essential responsibilities of being the owner of a Marketing Authorisation in Europe together with your obligations to ensure that systems are in place not to have the MA withdrawn. `
